2nd Annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the P. C. of S. C.

The second Annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the P. C. of S. C. was held in the lecture room of the college building March 9th. The meeting was called to order at the hour previously announced, by the President Dr. J. J. Woodside, of Washington S. C. who proceeded to read the annual address of the President on

A letter from Dr W. W. H. Thackston of Greenville S. C. who was appointed to deliver the next annual address, was read, stating that unavoidable detention prevented his being present and forwarded his address, with a request that it be read. This was done by Dr J. J. Gage.

At the conclusion of the reading, on motion of Dr J. A. LaFar, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered Dr Thackston for his able address and ordered; and on motion of Dr W. B. Wise it was resolved to have the same published.

Dr W. B. Wise, corresponding Secretary of the Association stated

ent and a large number of invitations to the Women in the east in foreign countries, and had received a number of letters commending the object of the association, and expressing inability to be present, He read a letter from Dr Gardner of Westfield Mass regretted exceedingly that great distance prevented his attendance, and giving assurances that his heart and soul were with the association.

Dr L. D. French of Troy N.Y. and others wrote their inability to attend on account of sickness, but wished the association success.

The following resolution was offered by Dr Cockrill.

Whereas, the good of our profession is our highest aim, be it therefore Resolved.—

That no member of this asso. shall attend any society or dental convention of any kind in which any person or persons are allowed to practice dent. as members who have not received a diploma from some reputable dental college.

The resolution was adopted with out debate, and reconsideration of Dr O. B. Hunt of Va. was reconsidered, and debated by Dr

[illegible] by Dr Geo H. Howard and by Dr H. N. Hart, & others of Balto

Pending its discussion, Dr J. B. Hodgkin [illegible] an amendment.

Provided that such person or persons commenced the practice of dentistry [illegible] twenty years [illegible] date of this resolution.

On motion of Dr. Wise the resolution and accompanying amendment were laid on the table.

Dr J. B. Hodgkin [illegible] resolution.

Resolved = That a committee of three be appointed, whose duty it shall be to draft an "order of business" for the [illegible] of the business of this Society, this committee to report at the next annual meeting. The committee is hereby empowered to arrange with members of the Society [illegible] for the reception and reading of papers on subject of interest to the profession,

The President appointed as this committee Drs Howard, Gorgas & Wescott.

Dr J. B. Hodgkin also offered the following leaving a vacancy, which was carried.

Resolved — That a committee of three be appointed by the President whose duty it shall be to consider and mature a plan for the organization of some system of Life Insurance among the members of this Society, this committee to report at the next annual meeting.

The President appointed as this committee Jno G. W. Hodgkin, Wm L. Conner & Thos H. Davy.

The Association then proceeded to the business of election of officers for the ensuing year, resulting in the re-election of those at present holding those positions.

The Association then adjourned.

The report was on motion received.

Dr Gorgas announced the death of Dr Geo E. La Motte of the Class of 1871 and Dr W.A. Wells announced the death of Henry R. Noel, formerly Prof. of Physiology in the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery. Both gentlemen paid appropriate tributes of respect to the memory of the deceased.

Dr W.B. Wise corresponding Sec'y by letter excused his inability to be present at this meeting and stated that if re-elected he would be glad to serve the Association and would to all in the power & [illegible] to [illegible] Whereupon the subject was discussed by the Association at the [illegible] of Annual banquets, contending that the Association itself should provide such.

Dr Cookville was of the opinion that this duty devolved upon the faculty of the College, which however was dissented from by a number of the members present.

The Association then proceeded with the election of officers, which resulted as follows,

President Dr L.L. Cookville, Vice Presidents Drs W.A. Mills, Henry Noble Treasurer Dr Wm T. Hooper, Corresponding
Dr W.B. Rice, Recording [illegible]

The President made a short discourse trying to instil into the members the necessity of punctuality at these meetings. The annual address was then delivered by Prof T. J. S. Gorgas. The minutes were read and approved. On motion the reading of the minutes was made ~~no~~ 2 in the order of business.

The committee on life insurance reported as follows

"The committee to whom was referred the question of the organization of a Society Life Insurance report that in the present depressed financial condition of the Country, they deem it inexpedient to report any definite plan, and ask for further time!

Respectfully submitted
T. S. Latimer Chairman
A A Mills
J W Hodgkin."

On motion the report was adopted. Dr Hodgkin then read the following resolution. Whereas the faculty of the Maryland Dental College deem it best for the interest of Dental Education to merge theirs the youngest of the Colleges with the Oldest the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery thus harmonizing conflicting elements and securing by combination that strength, which seperately neither possessed.

"Resolved; by the Alumni of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery that we express a sense of the appropriateness of this coalition and we hope that a new era of prosperity, shall dawn on the cause of Dental Education in Baltimore"

Dr A B Noble made a few remarks saying he hoped the resolution would be received unanimously. On motion the resolution was adopted.

Dr Hoopes then read the following resolutions

"Whereas Basil. H. Wilkerson D.D.S. M.D. for years demonstrator of operative dentistry in the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery has ~~resigned~~ severed his connection with that institution as a teacher, - Resolved; That the Alumni Association of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery do hereby tender him their hearty approval of the benefits he has conferred on the profession, not only as a teacher, but as an inventor in designing the "Wilkerson chair", which if properly used will save many a backache to the toiling dentist.

Also Resolved; That

that the thanks of this Association be and are hereby tendered to Messrs Johnston Bros & Selby for having created by their enterprise a new era in the profession by being the first to introduce the Dental engine the condensed nitrous oxide gas and the Ring of chairs.

Resolved; that the Secretary be instructed to forward to these Gentlemen a copy of these resolutions.

Several gentlemen objected to the adoption of the resolution tendering thanks to Messrs Johnston Bros & Selby saying that it was establishing a bad precedent. The resolution was therefore laid on the table. The first resolution was adopted. Dr C S Kimball then awarded the prizes for theses on conservative treatment of the pulp and specimens of plate work & tooth & filling. Dr A.C. Ferrari of Russia received a set of Varney pluggers for the best thesis. The Dental Engine for the best piece of plate work was awarded to B J Cruttlebaum of S.C. The prize for the best filled tooth was a medical & dental Hanes Dictionary and was awarded to L A Colvin of Virginia.

The Alumni of the Md Dental College were invited to become members of this Alumni. Dr Kimball then announced that the second best thesis was written by A M Rice of Connecticut. The Sec then read letters from Drs Hide Rise of Norfolk Virginia and Lockerman of Georgetown D.C. stating their inability to be present at the meeting of the association. Dr Cockrille then read a paper on the aims and teachings of the dental college warning the graduates against the errors and charlatanry of the age, Dr Mills having been called to the chair. Dr Cockrille moved a committee of five be appointed, - two from the faculty and three from the Alumni to make arrangements for the annual banquet. Drs Gorgas and Hodgkin from the faculty & Drs Cockrille Hoops and Davy from the association were appointed on this com. Dr Thompson offered the following — "Resolved; that the Alumni of this College be requested to contribute one dollar each for the purpose of establishing a library for the use of this College and Alumni".
